Please make sure you follow the Ward Green way by taking pride in your work, showing good behaviour in class and on the playground, and most importantly, showing respect to all adults. Remember to use the equipment safely and correctly. This equipment costs money, so please use it for its intended purpose."

Jumanji is a Zulu word that means 'many effects'. The word was used to name the game because it described exactly what the game did. Depending on what square a player lands on, the magic and effects could be drastically different.

A couple of hours before a kick-off on a matchday, Toby's kids club is an indoor venue that caters for the youngest supporters. Under 13's and accompanying parents and guardians can enjoy arts, craft and puzzles alongside playing pool, table tennis and game consoles.

Zach Kilner, a spirited 9-year-old Year 4 student, has been passionately involved in both football and karate for the past seven years. He proudly represents Pogmoor football team, a team he cherishes and actively plays for. Today, we have the pleasure of asking him a few questions.

Karate means "Empty Hand" in Japanese. This naming reflects the essence of the martial art, highlighting its emphasis on using empty hands for striking, kicking, and punching techniques. The "empty hand" philosophy signifies that practitioners harness their physical and mental abilities without relying on weapons.

Read it silently.
Don't move your lips.
Don't make a sound?
Listen to yourself.
Listen without hearing anything.
What a wonderfully weird thing,
huh?

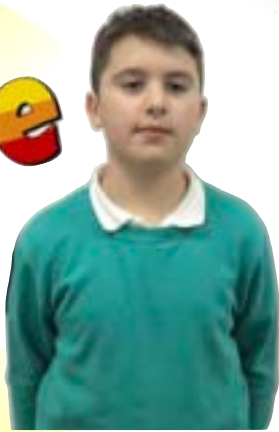

NOW MAKE THIS PART LOUD!
SCREAM IT IN YOUR MIND!
DROWN EVERYTHING OUT.
Now, hear a whisper.
A tiny whisper.
Now, read this next line in your best crotchety old man voice:
"Hello there sonny, does this town have a post office?"
Awesome! Who was that?
Whose voice was that?
